ACTIVE CITIZENS FUND

The general objectives of the Active Citizens Fund (hereinafter ACF) is to strengthen civil society and active citizenship and empower vulnerable groups.

The ACF program in Lithuania aims to achieve the following outcomes:

- Outcome 1. Increased citizen participation in civic activities
- Outcome 2. Strengthened civil society watchdog and advocacy role
- Outcome 3. Increased support for human rights
- Outcome 4. Vulnerable groups empowered
- Outcome 5. Enhanced capacity and sustainability of civil society

The ACF program also aims at strengthening of bilateral cooperation between civil society organizations from Lithuania and entities from the Donor states as well as promoting regional exchange and networking, with a view of sharing knowledge and best practice across civil society.

The ACF in Lithuania is part of the financial contribution of Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway to reduce economic and social disparities and strengthen bilateral relations with 15 EU member states.

1. FOCUS OF THE BILATERAL OUTCOME - ENHANCED COLLABORATION BETWEEN BENEFICIARY AND DONOR STATE ENTITIES

The aim of the bilateral cooperation is to foster partnerships of mutual benefit and high quality among Lithuanian NGO and entities in the donor states. This outcome is aiming to enhance the cooperation between Lithuanian NGOs and entities in the Donor States (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway).

The initiatives under this outcome should encourage common efforts of Lithuanian NGOs and Donor States entities in the following areas:

- a) search for partners prior to or during the preparation of a project application, the development of such partnerships and the preparation of an application;
- b) and/or networking, exchange, sharing and transfer of knowledge, technology, experience and best practice between project promoters and entities in the Donor States.

A list of activities supported under the Bilateral outcome:

- › search for partners prior to or during the preparation of a project application, the development of such partnerships and the preparation of an application;
- › and/or networking, exchange, sharing and transfer of knowledge, technology, experience and best practice between project promoters and entities in the Donor States.

The activities foreseen in the Bilateral Cooperation Initiatives may take place in Lithuania and/or in the Donor States (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway).

The ACF Program is based on the principles of results-based management, therefore each project submitted for this call must contribute to the Bilateral Outcome, correspond to the pre-defined output and measure the achievement with the at least one chosen indicator:

Bilateral outcome	Indicators
Enhanced collaboration between beneficiary and donor state entities involved in the Programme	Level of satisfaction with the partnership
	Share of cooperating organisations that apply knowledge acquired from bilateral partnership
	Share of participants in bilateral initiatives funded by the ACF bilateral fund reporting improved knowledge/methods/approaches
Outputs	Indicators
Partnerships between beneficiary and donor state entities supported	Number of projects involving cooperation with a donor project partner
Cooperation between beneficiary and donor state entities facilitated through the ACF bilateral fund	Number of bilateral cooperation initiatives funded by the ACF bilateral fund
	Number of individuals participating in bilateral activities funded by the ACF bilateral fund

Further information about possibilities for bilateral cooperation and partners' database can be found on the ACF in Lithuania website in the Bilateral Cooperation section: <https://apf.lt/en/dvisalis-bendradarbiavimas/>.

2. ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS AND PARTNERS

Eligible applicants are NGOs established as the legal entities in Lithuania for at least one year as well as entities from the Donor States that are non-commercial/non profit-making.

Lithuanian applicants must also fulfil the requirements set in the Law on Development of NGO.¹

All eligible applicants, partners and project proposals shall follow the principles of common values of respect for human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law, and the respect for human rights, including the rights of persons belonging to minorities.²

Political parties, religious institutions, social partners³ or profit-distributing cooperatives are not considered as NGOs and therefore are not eligible applicants.

² Article 1.2 of Protocol 38c on the EEA and Norwegian Financial Mechanisms (2014-2021)

³ Social partners are defined as trade unions and employers' organizations, as defined by the EU.

Faith-based organizations are eligible only if they meet the principles identified above and if the funded activities do not directly or indirectly promote religious doctrine, mission or proselytism related to the beliefs of a particular faith.

Eligible partner(s) must meet one of the following requirements:

- › private and public entities, commercial, non-commercial and non-governmental organizations that are legal entities established in Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein;
- › private and public entities, commercial, non-commercial that are legal entities established in Lithuania (in case if there is also a Lithuanian NGO involved in the partnership);
- › Lithuanian NGO established as the legal entity;
- › international organizations or bodies or agencies thereof (in case if there is also a donor entity involved in the partnership).

An initiative should be implemented in the form of partnership between at least one NGO in Lithuania and at least one entity in the Donor States (where one is the Applicant and the other party involved is considered Partner of the Bilateral Initiative). All Partners must share a common goal and actively contribute towards achieving the aim(s) of the initiative, as defined in the application.

Only one (1) Bilateral Cooperation Initiative application may be submitted for evaluation by the same Applicant organization. If the application has been approved, another application for Bilateral Cooperation Initiative may be submitted only after the previous one is finalized (final report is approved by the Fund Operator).

For further information regarding Eligible Applicants and Partners, please consult the Guidelines for Bilateral Cooperation Initiatives.

3. FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

The maximum amount of the grant for Bilateral Cooperation Initiative is €4,000. Grant rate may constitute up to 100% of eligible expenses. The duration of the bilateral cooperation initiative is from 1 to 6 months. The starting date of the initiative is normally the date of signature of Bilateral Cooperation Initiative Contract.

Eligible expenditure

All the budget items must be linked to project activities and comply with eligibility criteria, they have to be necessary and paid within the project period specified in the project contract. All expenditures have to be controllable and proportionate.

The following expenditures are eligible:

- › expert fees and their travel expenses
- › participation fees
- › travel expenses (transport expenses (flight, train, bus tickets, etc.), accommodation, per-diems or daily allowances)
- › other expenses (events and meeting costs, promotion and information activities, interpretation or translation, etc.).

Exceptionally, with reference to expenditures incurred by initiative partners whose primary location is in one of the donor states or project partners that are international organizations or bodies or agencies thereof, the proof of expenditure may take a form of a report by an independent auditor, qualified to carry out statutory audits of accounting documents, certifying that the reported costs are incurred in accordance with the guidelines, bilateral cooperation initiative contract, the relevant law and national accounting practices.

Detailed list of eligible expenditures and conditions for their eligibility, as well as non-eligible costs are specified in the Guidelines for Bilateral Cooperation Initiatives.

Payments to the initiatives

The submission of narrative and financial reports is a mandatory condition for the execution of the payments. Reports have to be approved by the Fund Operator before payments are made. Payments of the project grant shall take the form of advance payments and a final payment.

For further information regarding Financial provisions, please consult the Guidelines for Bilateral Cooperation Initiatives.
